THE ARTIST

behind the credits.

David Andrew is a Grammy-winning Australian recording artist, composer and pianist who moves between intimate solo work, chart-topping records, broadcast stages and international arenas.

His playing, production and vocals appear on 812 credited recordings streamed 3.8 billion times — including Hillsong Worship's Grammy-winning "What a Beautiful Name," Gang of Youths' ARIA-winning run, stripped-back productions for Tones and I, and the "Heroes" recording featured in Warner Bros.' Justice League trailer.

He has performed for Coca-Cola, Meta, Ferrari and Adobe, played arenas of 30,000, and appeared on Australian Idol, The X Factor and national morning television. Alongside select collaborations and commissions, he releases a new solo recording every Friday — 52 in 52 weeks.
